

Split and Dubrovnik: beauty and culture with your dog

Duration: 8 days / 7 nights

Destination: Dalmatia, Croatia

Suitable for: Travellers with dogs

Description: From Split's ancient Diocletian's Palace to the scenic olive groves and beautiful Hvar Island, each day includes carefully chosen dog-friendly experiences. Enjoy nature trails, vineyard tours, and seaside villages on the Pelješac Peninsula and Elafiti Islands. With pet-friendly accommodations, boat rides, and outdoor dining options, this itinerary offers an immersive Croatian experience that's perfect for you and your furry friend.

Day 1: Split

Morning: Welcome to Split. Make your way to your dog-friendly accommodation and enjoy some free time exploring the city's pet-friendly parks and waterfront promenade.

Day 2: Split

Morning: meet your guide for a private tour of Split. Explore the grounds of the 1,700-year-old Diocletian's Palace with your dog. Dogs are allowed in the outdoor areas of the palace.

Afternoon: transfer to outskirts of Split and for a beautiful tour of the olive groves with your dog. End the day with an organic olive oil tasting.

Day 3: Hvar Island Tour

Morning: Take a dog-friendly catamaran ride to Hvar town. Participate in an outdoor guided tour of Hvar, visiting main sites and enjoying scenic views from the Hvar fortress.

Afternoon: Explore Hvar's interior with your dog, visiting picturesque villages and viewpoints. Enjoy a traditional lunch in a pet-friendly local tavern. Enjoy some more free time before heading back to Split.

Day 4: Adventure Day in Omiš

Morning: Visit the town of Omiš. Choose a dog-friendly hike along the Cetina River or enjoy outdoor activities suitable for you and your dog.

Afternoon: Have lunch at a dog-friendly restaurant by the river. Return to Split in the evening.

Day 5: Biokovo Nature Park and Dubrovnik

Morning: after breakfast, depart from Split and head to Biokovo Nature Park. This stunning park is dog-friendly, allowing you and your furry friend to explore its breathtaking scenery. Visit the Skywalk Biokovo viewpoint, a thrilling glass walkway that offers stunning views across the Adriatic Sea to Italy. Enjoy the panoramic vistas with your dog by your side.

Afternoon: Continue your journey to the Pelješac peninsula, stopping in Mali Ston. Known for its ancient city walls and renowned oyster farms, it's a perfect place for a leisurely stroll with your pet. Arrive in Dubrovnik in the evening. Spend your free evening exploring the city's charming streets.

Day 6: Dubrovnik Food & Wine Tour

Morning: enjoy a relaxed morning with your dog, perhaps taking a scenic walk along Dubrovnik's historic city walls or visiting a dog-friendly park.

Afternoon: join a private walking tour of Dubrovnik's Old Town at lunchtime focused on tasting local dishes and wines. The tour will stop at pet friendly establishments.

Day 7: Private boat tour to Elafiti Islands

Morning: join a private boat tour to the Elafiti Islands, known for their small fishing villages and Mediterranean charm. The short boat ride offers perfect views of Dubrovnik's town walls from the sea, and dogs are welcome aboard.

Afternoon: stop at the idyllic bay Vrbova on the island of Šipan.
